

Thursday

8.30 - 17.30	Registration
10.00 - 11.00	Official opening by Karen Maex (Rector Magnificus UvA) and welcome by Linda de Greef, Machiel Keestra, James Welch, conference chairs
11.00 - 12.30	Opening lecture: Amsterdam in global context, by James Kennedy
12.30 - 13.30	World Café, moderated by Iris van der Tuin, Linda de Greef
	Lunch
	Parallel sessions 1 (60 min)
13.30 - 14.30	Workshop Building collaborative capacity Rebecca Freeth, Guido Caniglia	Workshop Pressure Cooker IIS Rosanne van Wieringen	Performance Weaving the maps: tales of survival and resistance Written and directed by Isis Nusair and Laila Farah Performed by Laila Farah	Panel Discussion Tackling tomorrow's big questions: liberal education and interdisciplinary learning Moderator: Murray Pratt Integrative interdisciplinarity and liberal education: using e-portfolios to develop connections and coherences within individualized degree programs Nathan Clendenin, Camilla Cassidy Interdisciplinarity in the pioneering visions of contemporary liberal arts education in Europe Daniel Kontowski Trans-positioning interdisciplinarity: integration and statelessness Kevin Foskin Grand challenges and living labs: a transdisciplinary approach to learning Robert Stannard	Poster Presentations Examples of interdisciplinary courses, programs and colleges Pre-graduate study program 'Human and Environment': Linking research and teaching in an interdisciplinary approach Katherine Muñoz, J. Milde, I. Badlok, G. Reese, M. Schmitt, G. E. Schaumann, M. Maier The hackathon approach: how preserving vacant heritage can benefit from it Joop van Duren Designing an interdisciplinary peer mentor program for undergraduate research Victoria Jelicio, Emma Barker, Lauren Schrock The source project: engaging freshman in research discovery Valerie Imbruce The information frontiers program: expanding student capacity for crossing domain and institutional borders Brent Ladd The examined life: an experiment in interdisciplinary course design in Philosophy Timothy Jussaume The interdisciplinary minor initiative: connecting students, disciplines, cultures, and careers Catherine Jackson	Themed Paper Presentations Pioneers in the region From area studies to interdisciplinarity: the Gulf Studies model Mahjoob Zweiri Institutional partnerships, transformations, and the formation of the Rocky Mountain Association for Integrated Studies Michael Cena Interdisciplinary Education Across University Academic Areas Ana M. Carbacho	Solution Rooms Connecting university to the diversity of its local context through the pre-university college program Annebeth Simonsz, Elena Burgos Martinez Can we find a universal interdisciplinary thesis rubric? Noah Millman How can we ensure that the skills students cultivate in participatory/experiential learning activities are durable and transferrable? Mary Paddock
14.30 - 15.00	Coffee/tea break
	Parallel sessions 2 (60 min)
15.00 - 16.00	Workshop Unite and Unrule! Contemplative pedagogical approaches for transformative education Mieke Lopes Cardozo	Workshop Interdisciplinarity as the new professional literacy Michael Kelly, Cynthia A. Brandenburg, Aziz Fatnassi, Craig Pepin	Performance Transdisciplinary education: connecting society, arts and science Michaela Hordijk, Debby Gerritsen, Dagmar Slagmolen, Rosanne van Wieringen	Panel Discussion From retention to integration: A discussion on transforming general studies into interdisciplinary degrees Benjamin Brooks (moderator), Khadijah O. Miller, Renée K. Nicholson, Kate Schaab	Panel Discussion Interdisciplinarity and project-based innovation Blair Stevenson (moderator), Isabelle Vandevyvere, Kerstin Blumenstein	Themed Poster Presentations Enhancing interdisciplinary education In what interdisciplinary way do law students think, when trying to solve complex problems? Werner Schäfer Improving interdisciplinary thinking and understanding when researching global issues Anne Diekema, Katie E. Englert A framework for online support of undergraduate interdisciplinary research Rianne van Lambalgen External influences on organizational change in interdisciplinary majors Rachel Marias Dezendorf Art & research & education in a glob/c/al flow Tatjana Macic Metacognition and adaptive expertise of interdisciplinary graduates: evidence from reflections Merel van Goch Big ideas, interdisciplinary thinking project: insight on interdisciplinary instruction Megan Baker Writing strategies for science communication and self-perception of writing skills in 1st year interdisciplinary students Florentine Sterk	Themed Paper Presentations Educating the next generation London Interdisciplinary School Carl Gomblich Developing methodology and processes to introduce interdisciplinarity at undergraduate level Paul O'Toole Inter- and transdisciplinary teaching and learning in the complementary studies at Leuphana College, Lüneburg Maik Adomßent	Solution Rooms Border-crossing: when community partners take the lead in interdisciplinary learning, teaching, and work Merith Weisman, Damien Wilson How to assess interdisciplinarity Jessica Rodermans, Debby Gerritsen, Ijla Boor No Man is an Island: A Collaborative Approach to Marketing Your Interdisciplinary Program Cinthia Kimball Davis, Lynn Kvamme, Melanie Tirrell, Roger LaMarca
16.00 - 16.15	Transition
	Parallel sessions 3 (60 min)
16.15 - 17.15	Workshop Interdisciplinary methodologies to study cities around the globe Nanke Verloo, Luca Bertolini	Panel Discussion Creating sustainable communities Tami Carmichael (moderator), Kate Schaab, Rebecca Leber-Gottberg, Jeffrey Carmichael	Panel Discussion Global exchanges between interdisciplinarians Kirsi Cheas (moderator), Merel van Goch, Ari Lindeman, Andi Hess	Themed Poster Presentations Sustainability: global challenges, interdisciplinary solutions A psychological view of environmental politics Jady Chen Future principles for sustainable creation utilizing interdisciplinary frameworks Kalri Koort, Marie Vinter A multidisciplinary approach to a multi-faceted problem Erin Flores, Ashley Tyler, James Pollard Designing a transformative epistemology of the problematic - a perspective for transdisciplinary sustainability research Esther Meyer, Daniela Peukert Sustainable co-evolution through co-creation Gabriëlle Rossing Co-designing with students a module on interdisciplinary research methods for MSc research on water management and governance Emanuele Fantini, Mireia Tutusaus, Margreet Zwarteveen Skills for the future? A self-assessment of system thinking and interdisciplinary competences by students and graduates Emma van der Zanden	Themed Paper Presentations Research methods and conceptual tools Imagining well-being in a catastrophic age Jennifer Schulz* Moving from toolboxes to praxis platforms Stefan Hilser Critical social theory: an interdisciplinarity framework for responding to the challenges of a globalized world John Lundy* Metacognitive capacity building and interdisciplinary learning Benjamin Brooks Prospects for methodological convergence across sciences and research field Misha Ilyin	Themed Paper Presentations Analyzing the process and content of interdisciplinarity Modeling interdisciplinarity as a network Christian Stein Scientometric instruments for the evaluation of inter- and multidisciplinary Loet Leydesdorff Manifesto of interdisciplinarity Rick Szostak Globally extended cognition: philosophy of mind meets earth remote sensing* Sven Arvidson, Terry Arvidson Finding a Drop of Water in the Ocean: A Proposal for a New International Data Classification System Timothy T. Stoller	Exhibition Tour Rocas memorial. Interactive memory place José Juis Creativity and Curiosity Gillian A Mc. Farland, Ione Parkin Changing the story: How can arts, heritage and human rights education support youth-centered approaches to peacebuilding in conflict-affected countries? Katie Hodgkinson	Campus Walk Campus walk & historical tour of the area by students
17.15 - 18.30	State of the field, by James Which and AIS Board + opening drinks
19.00 - 22.00	Dinner circles							